

DIVINA DENUEVO

HAND CRAFTED LEATHER GOODS

WHOLESALE CATALOGUE | 2019

YOU ARE CARRYING A PIECE OF THE PAST.

OUR HARDWARE. Divina Denuuevo literally means “Divine Again” in Spanish. We search high and low for antique and vintage hardware, keys and adornments in an effort to up-cycle something old that was otherwise destined for the landfill, and make it new again.

OUR LEATHER. We intentionally embrace and preserve the perfect imperfections found in leather. The brand marks, textures and idiosyncrasies of the material emphasize how unique each and every piece is - no two are ever the same. Over time, your leather will develop a beautiful patina reflective of the life its had with you and the adventures you’ve shared.

OUR GUARANTEE. Every Divina Denuuevo accessory is lovingly handmade from start to finish by two people. Each piece is designed, cut, assembled, sewn, riveted and finished with attention to detail and pride. We offer a lifetime guarantee for our hardware. Leather, when cared for properly, will last more than a lifetime.

THANK YOU. By purchasing a Divina Denuuevo leather accessory you are not only investing in a product that will last a lifetime, you are also helping preserve history and reduce waste.

ABOUT: The Designers

As with many adventures, the birth of Divina Denuovo began with a skeleton key...

A key that unlocked a love for creating unique pieces that hint to a simpler time, using time-honoured leather-crafting techniques and sustainable design principles. Our designs are unique and edgy, while also remaining romantic and classic. We focus on re-purposing that which the world has cast aside in redundancy like keys that no longer open doors and locks that have lost their place as time has worn on. We believe in reducing waste and re-using our scraps to minimize our footprint, and in working with our hands to make pieces of functional art.

Victoria Ronco Davis

Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, it was only natural that Victoria would choose to name the line of leather goods she was making in Spanish. Passionate about sustainability and eco-consciousness since her teenage years, she shops local as much as possible, checks the carbon footprint of her groceries, and tries to reduce the amount of plastic in her household. Before launching the Divina Denuovo line, Victoria was always making things: from clothes to jewelry, she preferred to create something original rather than wear what the masses were sporting. When she came upon her first piece of leather she was fascinated – the rustic look and raw edges looked absolutely perfect and unique. Having always collected opulent oddities such as skeleton keys and antique hardware, she found that the shiny glints of hardware on the rich leather made an excellent juxtaposition. After making her first bag, she began looking at any old hardware that might end up in a landfill: doorknobs, cabinet handles, keyplates, hinges – It became her mission to find anything that she could save, repurpose, and make beautiful again.

Dave Kelly

Dave grew up in a smaller community in Northern BC and moved to the Lower Mainland after high school to complete his degree. He met Victoria when they both worked at the same company. They became good friends and when Victoria was preparing for a local market, Dave offered to help. He originally began managing the business administration of the line (handling pricing, inventory, product management and logistics), but soon found a spark in creativity that led him to begin designing. His passion for the environment and natural talent for technical design began to shine through, lending balance to Victoria's artistic side. Dave still handles all the supply and production administration, pricing and inventory, leaving Victoria to do the marketing and customer service. They both share in the design and creation, working together as a collaborative team rather than as two individuals.

Divina Denuovo operates out of beautiful Vancouver, British Columbia.

All of our work is lovingly handmade from start to finish, by the two of us, in our small studio.

– Victoria & Dave

ABOUT:
One-of-a-Kind Leather Bags

Raw Edge Bags:

BAGS WITH A RAW EDGE FLAP:

These bags feature the natural raw cut of the leather (the edges of the hide). We do not create the shape of the flap, it's completely organic and depends on how the hide was cut at the tannery. As such, each piece is one-of-a-kind.

No two pieces will ever have an identical shaped flap edge - we are able to ensure that the flap is either asymmetrical, straight across, or comes to a center point, but the idiosyncrasies and nuances of the flap shapes are outside of our control.

Skeleton Key Accent Bags:

BAGS WITH AN ANTIQUE SKELETON KEY AS AN ADORNMENT:

These bags feature an authentic, antique skeleton key. Each piece has a different, unique key accompanied by a laser engraved tag sewn inside that indicates the key's origins and where it was recovered. The keys come from various interesting places, ranging from abandoned warehouses to shipwrecks, cottages in the south of France and even small villages in old Transylvania. Most are well over 100 years old.

Hardware Accent Bags:

BAGS WITH ANTIQUE OR VINTAGE HARDWARE AS ADORNMENTS:

These bags feature authentic vintage and antique hardware pieces - ranging from door knockers to drawer pulls. Often these pieces are recovered from scrap yards and their origin is unknown. In some cases we are able to recover multiple pieces of the same hardware (though each with its own unique patina and marks of age), and in others the hardware pieces are completely one-of-a-kind.
